Long Meadow Lake Trails

(see map for permitted uses on these trails)

Hillside Trail (0.4 mi., loop) - From the Visitor Center, this trail drops steeply to a observation platform overlooking Peterson Pond. A free, self-guided Songbird Trail Pack can be checked out at the Visitor Center. A spur trail leads to the Long Meadow Lake Trail.

Long Meadow Lake Trail (3.5 mi., linear) - Begins at the gate on American Blvd., or from the Hillside Trail. The trail enters hillside forest and crosses a water control structure (0.6 mi.), then continues past marsh, a Minnesota River viewpoint (1.1 mi.), bottomland forest, along a river oxbow (1.9 mi.), and ends at the Cedar Ave./Hwy. 77 bridge. A walkway crosses the river to the Jens Casperson Landing (DNR), where the State Corridor Trail heads east along the river to Fort Snelling State Park.

Bass Ponds (0.7 mi., loop) - Two short loop trails lead from the shelter area, past a spring-fed stream, and around a pond and marsh. An interpretive brochure is available at the Visitor Center. This area also serves as the east trailhead for the Hogback Ridge Trail.

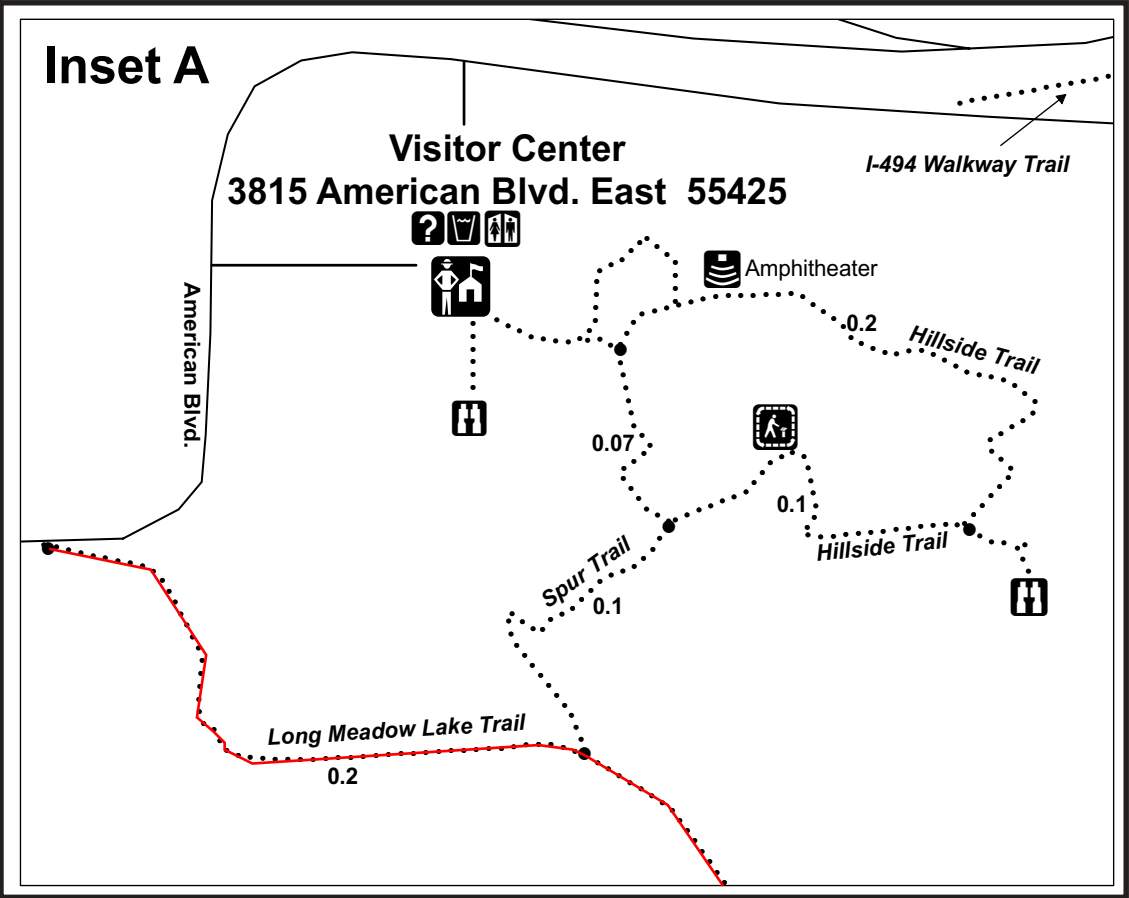

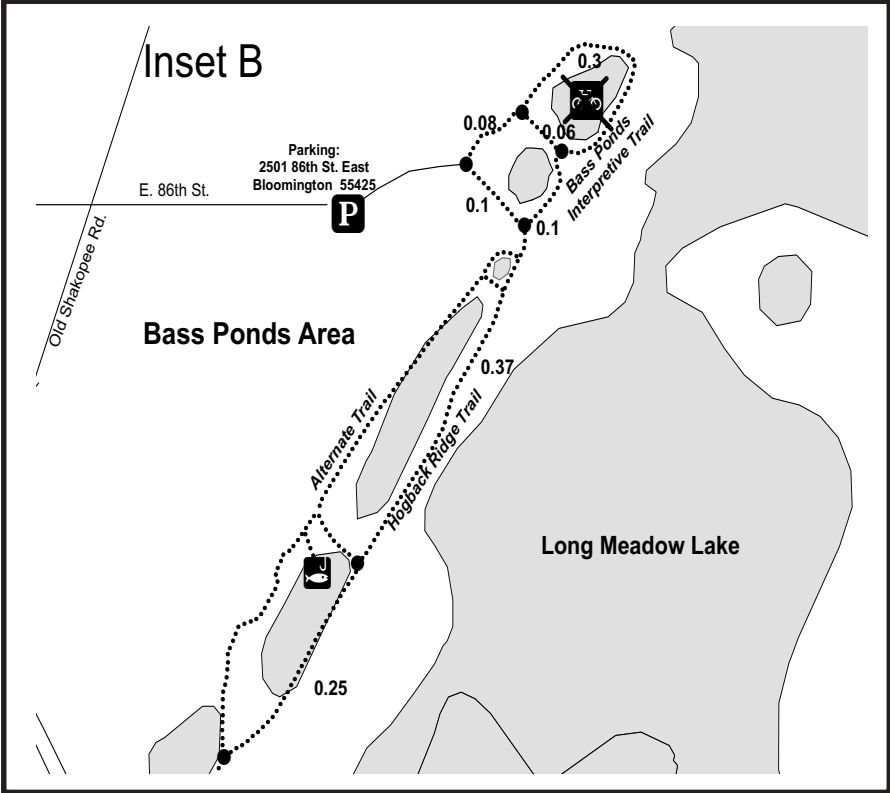

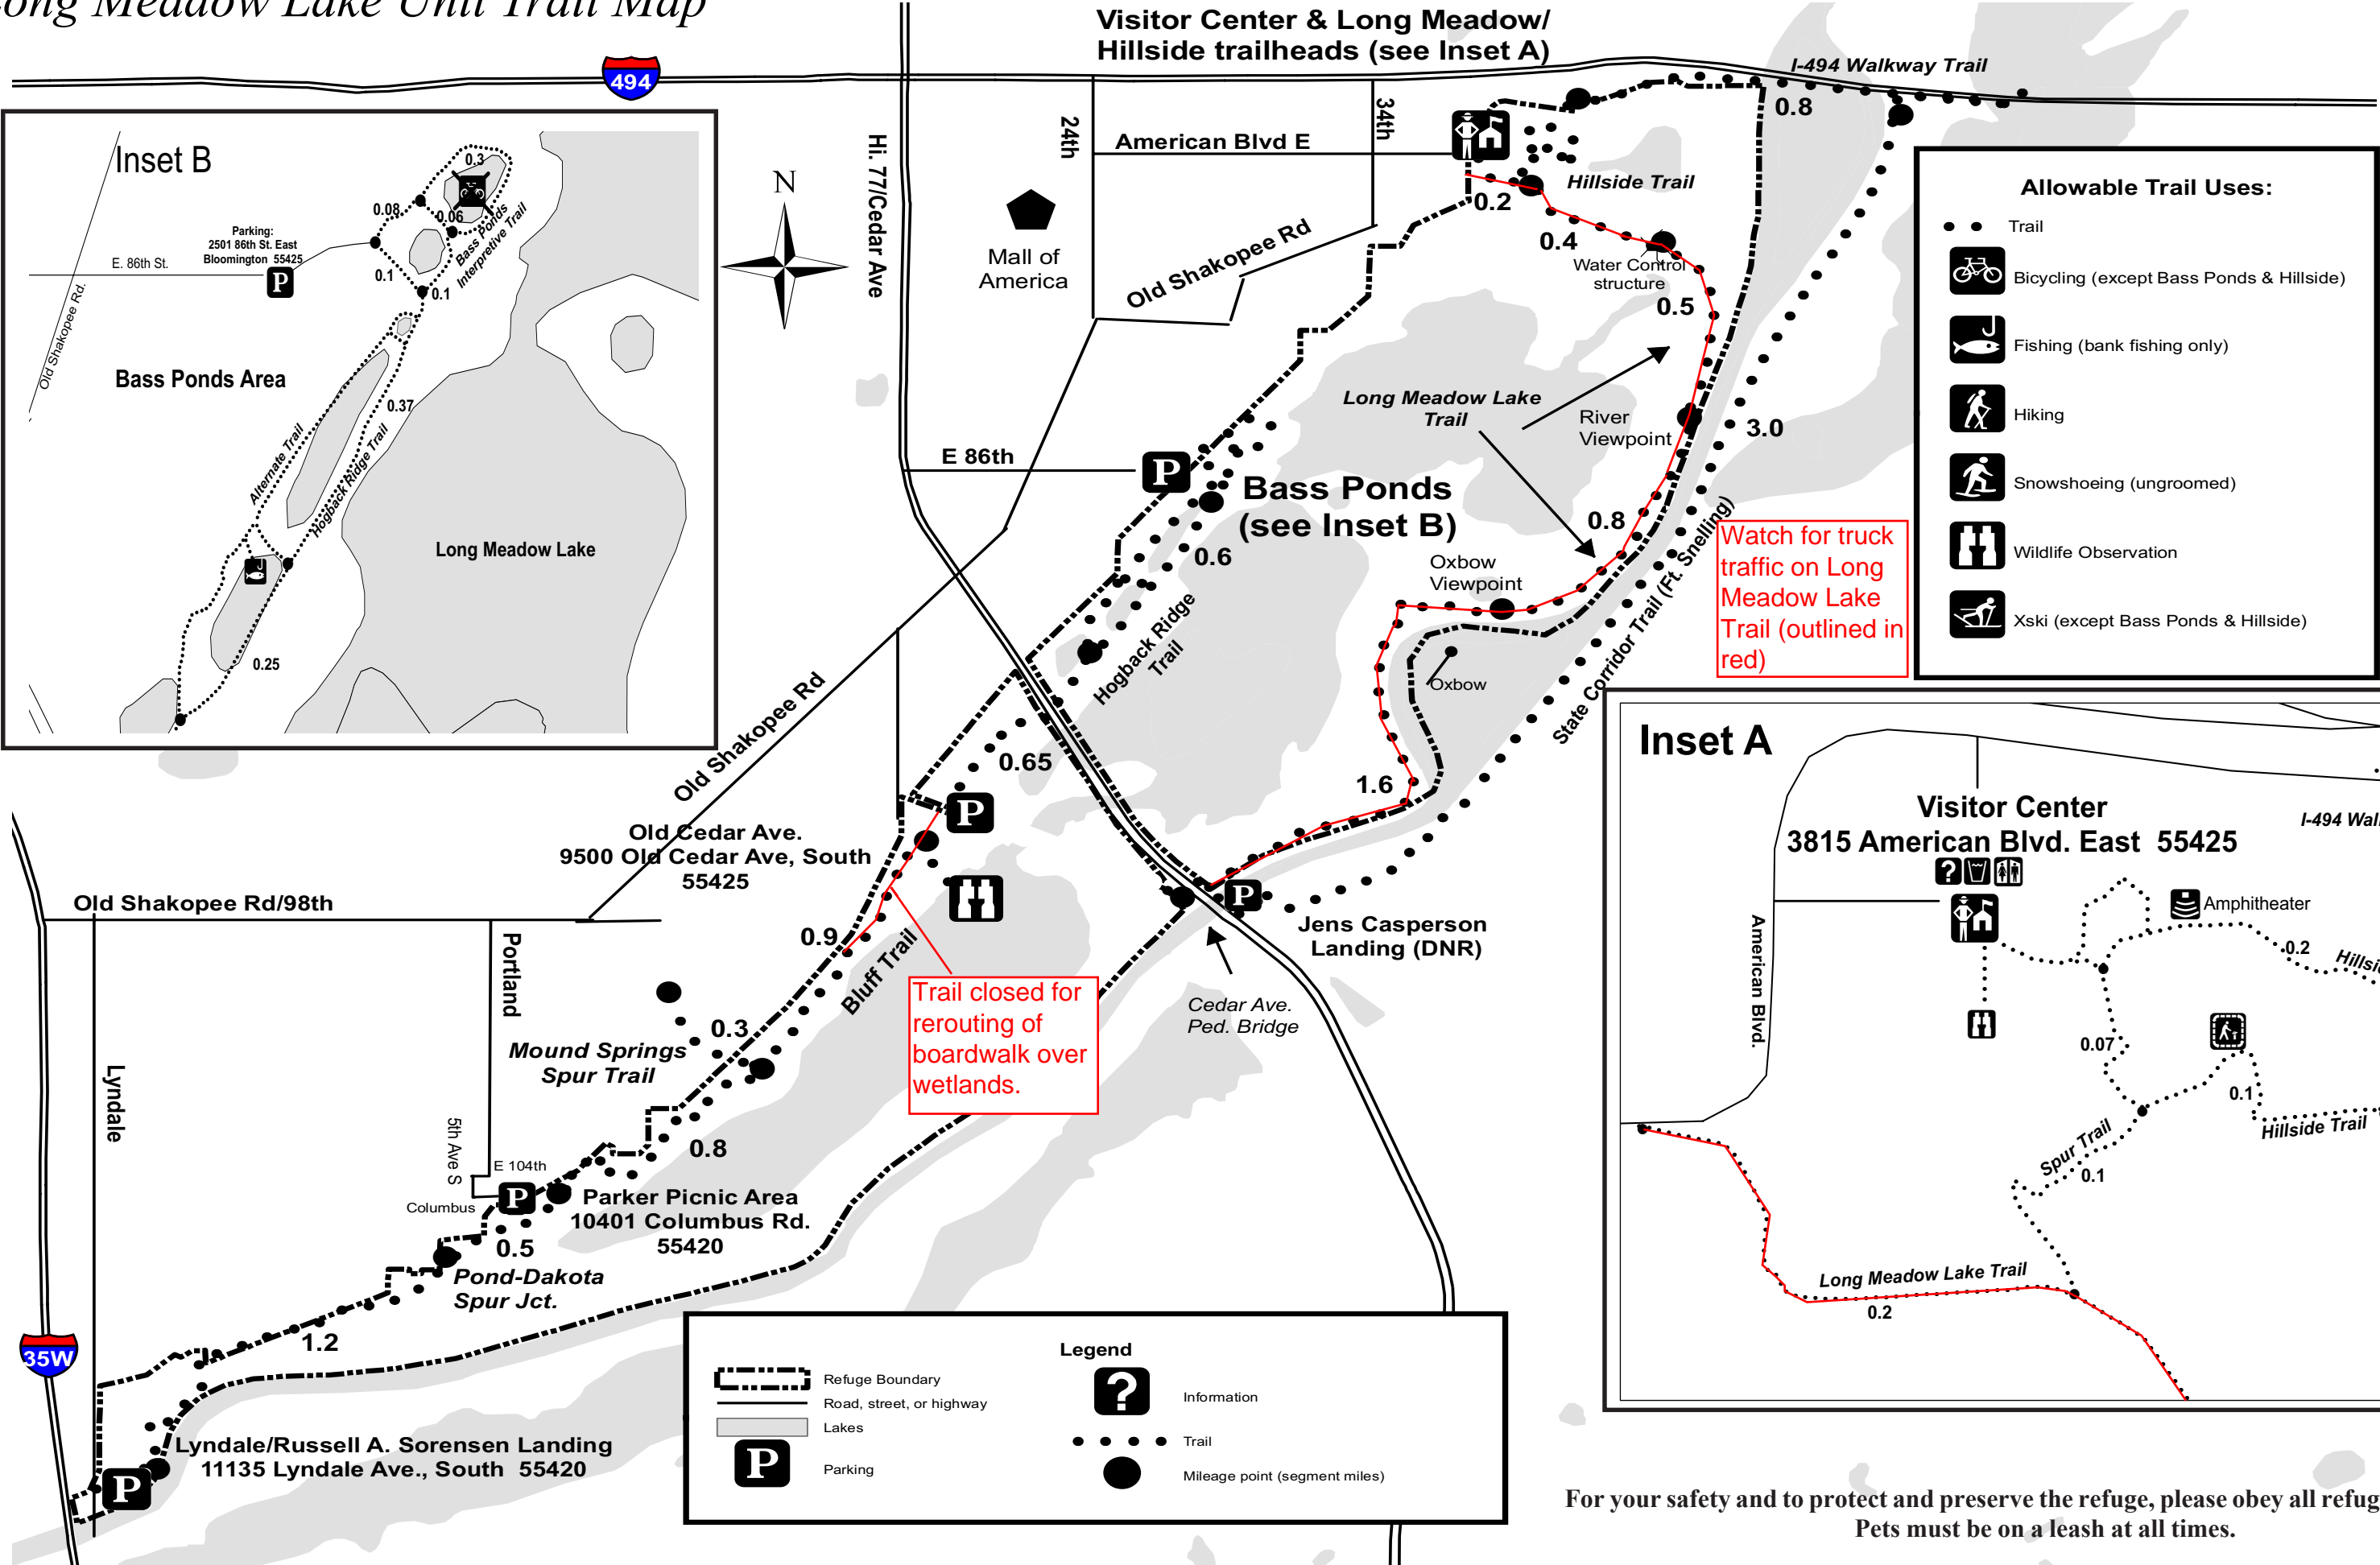

Hogback Ridge Trail (1.3 mi., linear) - Accessible either from Bass Ponds or Old Cedar Avenue, this trail heads west from the Bass Ponds shelter. It passes a series of ponds (on right) and Long Meadow Lake (on left). Continuing under Hwy. 77, it passes Cedar Pond platform and ends at Old Cedar Ave. parking area.

Bluff Trail (3.4 mi., linear) - Accessible either from Old Cedar or Russell Sorensen Landing (Lyndale Ave.), the east end heads west from Old Cedar Ave. After about 100 yards it passes a spur trail to the left that leads to a marsh boardwalk and platform. Through forest its entire length, the east half of the trail is fairly level and passes along the shore of Long Meadow Lake. After passing a spur (0.9 mi.) to Mound Spring Park, the trail occasionally rises in elevation, particularly at "Cardiac Hill", where a spur leads to the Parker Picnic Area (1.75 mi.). Another spur trail (2.2 mi.) leads to the Pond-Dakota mansion. The trail ends at Russell Sorensen Landing. Please note: bicycles are not allowed from Old Cedar Ave. to the spur trail.

State Corridor Trail - Access either from Jens Casperson Landing, or from the I-494 walkway, this trail is part of the Fort Snelling State Park trail system (DNR). The portion across the river from Long Meadow Lake follows the river from the I-494 bridge (north) to Jens Casperson Landing. It is a gravel road for the northern-most mile, and for the southern-most half mile.

I-494 Walkway - From the Visitor Center, American Blvd. E continues as a hiking/biking walkway across the I-494 bridge. This trail links to Fort Snelling State Park.
